

Acknowledgements 2003-2004

1. The Professional Development Programme for Educational Psychologists in Scotland is managed by the Association of Scottish Principal Educational Psychologists (ASPEP).
2. The Professional Development Programme gratefully acknowledges the support of the Scottish Executive Education Department (SEED) in funding and promoting the Programme.
3. The cooperation of local councils in agreeing the themes of the Programme and enabling educational psychologists to participate in the projects is appreciated. Psychologists carry out the research, development and dissemination work for up to twelve days in the yearly PDP cycle.
4. The further assistance of West Dunbartonshire, East Dunbartonshire, City of Edinburgh and North Lanarkshire Councils respectively, for providing secondment of Mr Billy Bonar, Mrs Clare McGrorry, Mr Douglas Fisher and Mrs Noreen Phillips as Coordinators of the Programme is gratefully acknowledged.
5. The Association of Scottish Principal Educational Psychologists is gratefully thanked for the services of Mr Stephen Iliffe who has acted as Moderator to the Programme.
6. The programme is subject to the scrutiny of a Steering Group, which meets on three occasions in the course of the year. The participation of local council representatives, Ms Lynn Townsend (West Dunbartonshire Council) and Mr Jim Banks (Aberdeenshire Council), and of representatives of professional bodies, Ms Julie McPherson (British Psychological Society, Scottish Division of Educational Psychologists) and Mr Hamish McPhee (ASPEP) is acknowledged with thanks. The Steering Group has been ably chaired by Dr Mike Gibson, HMle.
7. The views expressed in the various reports and the conclusions reached are those of the authors and are not attributable either to employing councils or to the Scottish Executive Education Department.
8. Any part of this publication may be reproduced in whole or in part, except for commercial purposes or in connection with a prospectus or an advertisement, provided that the source and date thereof are stated.

Enquiries about individual reports should be addressed to the authors whose names and official locations are contained in the publication.

These reports and the Summary Document can also be accessed via the worldwide web at:

www.ltscotland.com/pdp/

PDP 2003-2004

ISSN 1364-5226