

Supporting learners – from early years to positive, sustained destinations

Legislation, Policies, Strategies and Frameworks

Age	Pre-Birth	Birth	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	10	11	12	13	14	15	16	17	18	18+
	Pre-Birth to 3 – Positive outcomes for Scotland’s children and families				Curriculum for Excellence – Development of the four capacities, innovative learning and teaching
	Early Years – Early Years Framework
	Getting it Right for Every Child – Person centred approach to all, early intervention, single plan and multi-agency sharing and working
	Additional Support for Learning – Identification and planning to support needs, planning for transition, 2004 and the amending 2009 legislation, the associated code of practice and Tribunal service
	Equality Act 2010 – Addresses discrimination and equality
	Achieving our Potential – Framework for tackling poverty and income inequality
	Looked After Children and Young People – We can and must do better, corporate parenting, improving outcomes for looked after children and young people
	Parents – Parental involvement and responsibility. Scottish schools (parental involvement) Act 2006
	Health – (1) Allied health professionals and education working in partnership, (2) Equally Well – tackling health inequalities in Scotland, (3) Towards a mentally flourishing Scotland
	Health Promotion and Nutrition in Schools – Schools (Health Promotion and Nutrition) (Scotland) Act 2007
	Skills Development – Skills for Scotland Strategy
	Community Care – Young Carers – Caring Together: the Carers Strategy for Scotland 2010-2015
	Promoting Positive Relationships and Behaviour – Positive Behaviour Team, national approaches
	Youth work (8-25) – Moving Forward – a Strategy for Improving Young People’s Chances through Youth Work
	Youth Justice – Preventing Offending by Young People: A Framework for Action
	More Choices, More Chances (14-25) – Support for positive, sustained destinations
	16+ Learning Choices – Policy and Practice Framework																				