

Domhnall Beag an t-Siucair

(tune: High Road to Linton)

Domhnall beag an t-siu - cair, an t-siu - cair, an t-siu - cair,

Domhnall beag an t-siu - cair, is du - il ai - ge po - sadh.

1. Cha gabh a chlann - ni - ghean, a chlann ni - ghean, a chlann - ni - ghean e,
2. Ged a bhi na gin - ni - dhean, na gin - ni - dhean, na gin - ni - dhean,

Cha gabh a chlann - ni - ghean e, bho nach ei - le boi - dheach.
Ged a bhi na gin - ni - dhean, a' gli - o gadhich na pho - caidh.

Translation:

Little Donald of the Sweets

phonetic pronunciation:

Little Donald of the Sweets...
...wants to get married.

Doll bake an hyookar, an hyookar. an hookyar
Doll bake an hyookar, is dool eyekyu posagh.

None of the girls will have him...
...because he isn't good looking.

Cha gav, a chlown neeyin, a chlown neeyin, a chlown neeyin eh,
Cha gav, a chlown neeyin eh, vo nach ayle boyuch.

Although he has money...
...clinking in his pocket.

Ged a vee, na ginnyin, na ginnyin, na ginnyin,
Ged a vee, na ginnyin, a gleegadich na fockidge.

Alternative Scots text:

I bought a can o' coke, a can o' coke, a can o' coke,
I bought a can o' coke and I couldnae get it open.

It didnae hae a ringpull, a ringpull, a ringpull,
It didnae hae a ringpull, I couldnae get it open.